TESTIMONIAL

4th October 2005

Morning Chris

I would like to take this opportunity in thanking you so much for your recent Behavioural Profiling you carried out for me and my colleagues here at Cellular Solutions.

It has certainly opened our eyes to look more in depth to the kind of clientele we are dealing with and has also improved the way that we communicate to our colleagues internally.

If you require any references for the work that you carry out then please don't hesitate to forward my details on and I would be more than willing to pass on my comments

Once again thank you for your valuable over view,

Best Regards
